

Festival

NAPA VALLEY

Mancini at 100

WEDNESDAY, JULY 17, 2024 | 6:30 PM

FESTIVAL NAPA VALLEY STAGE AT CHARLES KRUG

Monica Mancini, vocals
Gregg Field, drums

Shelly Berg, piano
Vince Mendoza, conductor

The Frost School of Music's Henry Mancini Institute Orchestra

PROGRAM

PINK PANTHER

IT HAD BETTER BE TONIGHT

OHIO RIVERBOAT

MR. LUCKY

MUSIC FROM THE THORNBIRDS

BABY ELEPHANT WALK

THEME FROM 10 - LIFE IN A LOOKING GLASS - MEDLEY

VICTOR / VICTORIA MEDLEY

TWO FOR THE ROAD

CHARADE

DAYS OF WINE AND ROSES

MOON RIVER

MOON RIVER BOWS

PETER GUNN

Continued on the reverse

BIOGRAPHIES

Concord Records recording artist and double GRAMMY® nominated vocalist Monica Mancini, daughter of famed film composer Henry Mancini, has carved out an impressive career as a concert performer, appearing with major symphony orchestras worldwide, including the Chicago Symphony, New York Pops, Boston Pops, Dallas Symphony, Seattle Symphony, and the London Metropolitan Orchestra.

Multiple GRAMMY® winner and 2010 "Producer of the Year," Concord Records Recording Artist Gregg Field is one of the most versatile and highly sought-after producers, drummers, and educators in music. Field has served as a Recording Academy Governor and Trustee, and he currently serves as Chairman of the Board for USC Thornton School of Music.

Shelly Berg is a Steinway piano artist, multi-GRAMMY® nominated arranger and producer, and dean of The Frost School of Music at the University of Miami. He is a recipient of the IAJE Lawrence Berk Leadership Award and has been named "Educator of the Year" by the Los Angeles Jazz Society, as well as one of three "Educators for the Millennium" by the Los Angeles Times.

Eight-time Grammy award-winning composer, arranger, conductor and recording artist Vince Mendoza has been at the forefront of the jazz and contemporary music scene for the last 30 years. His composing credits read like a "who's who" of the best modern instrumentalists and singers in the world today.

The Frost School of Music's Henry Mancini Institute Orchestra is a highly-acclaimed ensemble comprised of an orchestra, jazz band, rhythm section, and percussion. The ensemble is made up of writers, arrangers, and musicians who play a multitude of musical styles, including classical, jazz, Latin, world music, and more.

THANK YOU TO OUR PARTNERS

Monica Mancini appears as part of the Jan Shrem and Maria Manetti Shrem Vocal Arts Series.

The Frost School at Festival Napa Valley is a multiyear partnership with the University of Miami, featuring The Frost School of Music faculty and students playing a lead role in the Festival's university-level educational, chamber music, and orchestral music programming.

A Kaiser Permanente Thrive Community Concert